Overview

Key Features

The Miller DuraHoist portable fall arrest anchor post has been designed for use on top of transformers or other types of vertical platforms. The fall arrest anchor post provides three independent swivel tie-off points for fall-arrest anchorage and a three stage/four position telescoping design. Components are constructed of lightweight high strength aluminium for ease of storage, transport, set-up and manageability. The leveling screws allow the system to be plumbed to vertical for better working stability on inclines up to 15°. The anchor post also provides Horizontal Lifeline (HLL) capabilities using the HLL anchor ring. The anchor post collapses into one single piece weighing only 17.5kg.
